There is every indication of there being great sport at the fair grounds during the coming season. The Fair Association has already received applications for about 20 stalls to be occupied before April 1st by both running and harness horses. The secretary is in communication with other interior associations arranging for dates for the several fair and race meets in order that none will conflict. Local boys have asked the association for baseball grounds which will no doubt be granted; therefore the people of this county may look forward to some fine sport during the season.
